

Expression of interest to be appointed as a member of a Legal Aid Provider Selection Committee

Section 78 of the Legal Services Act 2011 authorises the Secretary for Justice to establish Selection Committees to assess and provide advice on applications for approval to provide legal aid services or specified legal services.

For each Selection Committee, the Secretary:

- must appoint a representative from the Ministry of Justice as chairperson of the Committee;
- must appoint a lawyer from a group of lawyers nominated by the New Zealand Law Society who the Secretary is satisfied is suitable and has expertise in relevant areas of law; and
- may appoint any other suitably qualified people that the Secretary thinks fit.
